STEP 3:

Once you Log in, you'll see your name at the top, and can go to "Summer Guests."

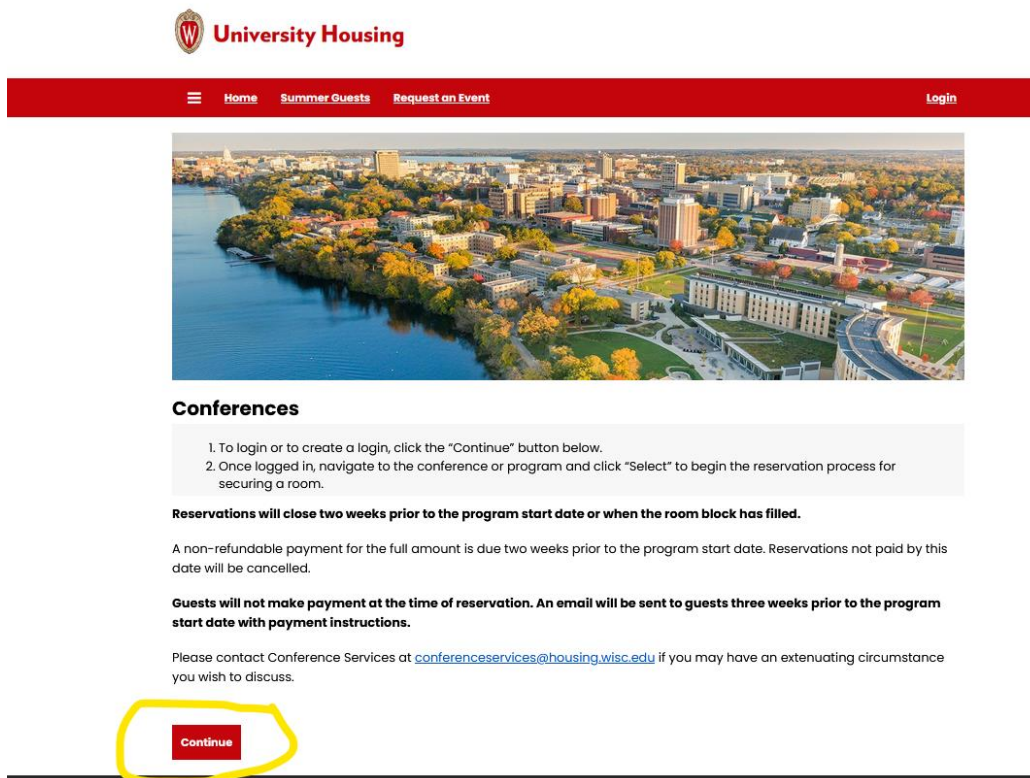

The screenshot shows the University Housing website. At the top left is the University of Wisconsin-Madison logo and the text "University Housing". Below this is a red navigation bar with the following links: Home, Summer Guests (highlighted with a yellow circle), Request an Event, and Login. To the right of the navigation bar is a "SOAR Reservations" button. Below the navigation bar is a large aerial photograph of the University of Wisconsin-Madison campus. To the right of the photograph is a "LEARN MORE" section with the following links: Resources for Planners, Summer Catering, Policies, and Meet our Staff. Below the photograph is a "Conference Services" section with the following text: "Welcome to the University of Wisconsin-Madison! We are happy to welcome you to our campus and accommodations." "For over 95 years, we have provided residence hall accommodations, meals and catered events, meeting venues and technology resources for summer visits." "Each summer, we welcome more than 18,000 guests from over 40 countries and across the United States. Our summer programs are university or state-sponsored and choose to stay with us because their experience includes:"

- Reasonably-priced, air-conditioned accommodations
- Delicious food and a flexible meal plan
- Professional, friendly staff
- Convenient access to a renowned research university
- Beautiful, scenic setting within an urban environment

Click on "Continue," at the bottom of the page.

To login or to create a login, click the "Continue" button below." "2. Once logged in, navigate to the conference or program and click "Select" to begin the reservation process for securing a room." "Reservations will close two weeks prior to the program start date or when the room block has filled." "A non-refundable payment for the full amount is due two weeks prior to the program start date. Reservations not paid by this date will be cancelled." "Guests will not make payment at the time of reservation. An email will be sent to guests three weeks prior to the program start date with payment instructions." "Please contact Conference Services at conferenceservices@housing.wisc.edu if you may have an extenuating circumstance you wish to discuss." At the bottom of the page is a red "Continue" button, which is highlighted with a yellow circle.

STEP 5:

Choose "Select" for your corresponding conference or program.

STEP 6:

After you select your conference group, there will then be 2 pages to read an overview, and answer questions. Housing options will appear on the next page, and you can adjust your dates (keep the full range of offered nights; or arrive later and/or depart earlier), and choose a spot in a Double Room, or a Single Room, (whichever option(s) the conference has chosen to offer).

Please be aware that a "Single" room- means you are paying to be alone in a room, to yourself.

If you choose a "Double" room, you pay for 1 spot in a double room for 2 people. If you have a roommate preference, please indicate that- and your roommate also must choose you, to be placed in the double room together. If you do not make a roommate choice, you will be paired with another person of the same identifying gender, from your conference.
