THE OPEN SEAT

Campus Student Food Pantry

WHAT IS IT?
The Open Seat is a student-funded, student-run, and student-serving food pantry by the Associated Students of Madison. All students with a Wiscard are eligible to use our services.

WHEN AND WHERE IS IT OFFERED?
The Open Seat is located on the 4th Floor of the Student Activity Center, Rm 4209. Our hours vary by season:
- Hours of service:
  - Sunday: 1:30 PM - 5:00 PM
  - Tuesday: 4:00 PM - 7:00 PM
  - Wednesday: 6:00 PM - 9:00 PM
We expect to have our summer hours listed by May.

HOW DO I USE IT?
Students can come to The Open Seat during any of our open hours or by appointment. On their first visit, students will be asked to provide their Wiscard and will be allowed to complete two forms as well as a sign-in sheet. Students may then select items that add up to their allotted points per visit. Students are allowed to use the pantry once a week.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT WHEN I GO?
The Open Seat offers a variety of non-perishable food items including canned vegetables and fruit, beans, pasta, cereal, oats, snacks, and more. In addition, we offer personal care and hygiene products, menstrual products, bread, and select fresh produce.

CONTACT
Email: fhking.students@gmail.com
Facebook: F.H. King Students for Sustainable Agriculture
Web: fhkingstudents.wixsite.com/fhking

SNAP Facilities

WHAT IS IT?
Beginning the fall semester of 2017, UW-Madison will become the first full-access food stamp friendly campus in the United States. SNAP accessibility at UW-Madison extends to select markets and dining halls for University Housing and the Wisconsin Union. SNAP accessibility will continue to extend throughout campus facilities to ensure that everyone can enjoy the dining experience UW-Madison has to offer. Purchasable items will be easy to locate in each facility. Your QUEST card with funds allocated by the Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) system will be accepted at the register. Please look forward to a feature of accessible facilities by University Housing and the Wisconsin Union this fall!

SUPPLEMENTAL NUTRITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

CONTACT
Jeff Novak: jeff.novak@housing.wisc.edu
Carl Korz: cdk.korz@wisc.edu

STUDENT FOOD & FINANCIAL RESOURCE GUIDE

MADE BY:
The Student Food and Financial Security Coalition
WHO IS THIS GUIDE FOR?

This is a guide for all students at UW-Madison. Beyond the cost of books and tuition, day to day expenses like food, clothing, and rent can pose a challenge for students to make ends meet. This is a compilation of various resources offered by student groups and other campus entities that are available to students to meet their needs. All resources listed are available for all students. You do not need to prove your need or have any formal affiliation with any of the organizations, no questions asked.

THE CAMPUS KITCHENS PROJECT

Community Meals

WHAT IS IT?
A meal prepared by student volunteers using surplus food from UW-Madison dining halls.

WHEN AND WHERE IS IT OFFERED?
Most Tuesdays from 6:00PM - 7:00PM in B141, Babcock Hall. Follow The Campus Kitchens Project at UW-Madison on Facebook for event updates!

WHAT CAN I EXPECT WHEN I GO?
Enter the room and grab a plate! The food is served as a buffet style. There is no sign-in required and you can come and go as you please. We also have to-go boxes for you to take extra food home with you!

CONTACT
Email: ckpmadison@gmail.com
Facebook: The Campus Kitchen at UW-Madison

SLOW FOOD UW

Family Dinner Night “Community Meal” Option

WHAT IS IT?
A discount on a 3-course, delicious, locally sourced meal. You pay $3 instead of $5.

WHEN & WHERE IS IT OFFERED?
In the basement of The Crossing (1127 University Ave) every Monday from 6:30PM - 7:30PM.

HOW DO I USE IT?
Follow Slow Food UW-Madison on Facebook. The menu and the link for purchasing the meal will be on the Family Dinner Night Facebook event. Click on the link and select the “Community Meal” option.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT WHEN I GO?
A sit-down style dinner featuring a community organization or local chef. There will be a desk to check in so give your name to the person at the desk and then find a seat in the cafeteria.

Cafe Pay it Forward Program

WHAT IS IT?
Sometimes people donate money when they buy their meal at Cafe. We set this money aside so that everyone is able to enjoy our food, regardless of ability to pay.

WHEN & WHERE IS IT OFFERED?
In the basement of The Crossing (1127 University Ave) every Wednesday from 11:30AM - 1:30PM. Drop-in visits are welcome anytime between these hours.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT WHEN I GO?
Go down to the basement of The Crossing. When you get to the check-in desk, tell the cashiers that you would like to use a Pay it Forward meal. They will put in your order and take your name. Find a seat and wait for your name to be called with your food. Enjoy!

CONTACT
Email: Slowfooduw@gmail.com
Facebook: Slow Food UW-Madison

LUTHERAN CAMPUS CENTER LUNCH

Community Meals

WHAT IS IT?
A FREE homemade lunch! Non-denominational

WHEN AND WHERE IS IT OFFERED?
Lunch is served Monday - Friday from 11:45AM - 12:00PM during the UW-Madison term at The Lutheran Campus Center at 325 N Mills St (Next to the Chemistry Building).

WHAT CAN I EXPECT WHEN I GO?
Walk into the Lutheran Campus Center and follow the line into the kitchen area. It is recommended that you arrive around 11:45AM. The food is served buffet style, so just grab a plate and help yourself.

CONTACT
Email: dtveite@lcmmadison.org

Questions or comments? Contact us: studentfoodandfinance@gmail.com